By car

Parking

The first three hours are for free on the parking area next to the Bosbaancafé. Every quarter (15 minutes) after then, it will cost you €0,35. This is only valid on the weekdays Monday till Friday from 9 am till 7 pm. In the weekends you can park here for free. On the map underneath this page you can see a P, this is where you can park your car.

If you're only here for a short visit you can park your car at the parking area of the KNRB. You can find this parking area in front of the federation's office.

If you want to park your car here you'll need a parquet. You can get one inside the federation's office. To get at this parking area you need to go left at the parking area next to the Bosbaancafé and after roughly 200 m you go to the left (passing the red-white post). Drive slowly towards the federation's office, you'll see the parking area on your right hand site.
